Claudia and Joe,

Exciting that this month I get to look into my first amendments and modifications in Title V.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

We just received this modification by email and are waiting for the hard copy for it to be official for Title V purposes. I've only had a few minutes to review it so far and if I find more on this I'll be sure to let you know. Otherwise it looks complete. I will be following up with Targa on emissions calculations that do not make sense.

Thanks,
